THE COMMUNICATION ON PROGRESS REPORT

What is the UN Global Compact and the CoP?

The United Nations Global Compact is the world's largest corporate sustainability initiative, which measures participants' progress towards the Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) through the annual Communication on Progress (CoP).

The Communication on Progress (CoP) is the accountability mechanism of the UN Global Compact.

CoP QUESTIONNAIRE

VALUE OF THE CoP DIGITAL QUESTIONNAIRE

Build credibility and brand value

Measure and demonstrate progress

Compare against peers

Identify gaps and learn

How does the new Communication on Progress relate to other sustainability reporting trends and regulations?

- The UN Global Compact is neither a standard-setter nor a reporting organization. While the new CoP can be seen by some as a new reporting standard, it emerged from the need to increase participants' accountability, promote participants' learning and enhance stakeholder access to comparable information related to the Ten Principles. Therefore, the CoP is the organization's unique reporting framework connected to the Ten Principles.
- The new CoP questionnaire draws from or is aligned with existing reporting standards like the GRI and CDP, and the content and structure of the questionnaire is aligned with relevant frameworks like the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights and ILO conventions.
- Certain regulations (e.g. CSRD-ESRS or IFRS-ISSB) are expected to require more information (more topics and more granular disclosures also in narrative format) from companies than the CoP will. Therefore, it is expected that companies that produce reports e.g. according to the CSRD-ESRS requirements, will already have collected all data needed to also complete the new CoP questionnaire - rather than the other way round
- The new COP platform, and the UN Global Compact overall as part of its thematic offerings, will provide support resources and guidance to help participating companies learn and disclose on key sustainability areas listed in the new CoP. While CoP disclosures alone will not be enough to fulfill, for instance, ESRS disclosure requirements, through engagement with the UN Global Compact and by disclosing on the COP, companies will be better prepared also to act and communicate on the topics covered by the ESRS and other regulations.

Features of a good COP

Be Complete:

- The info should be complete and accurate enough to assess and understand the org. performance in relationship to the four issue areas

Ensure relevance:

- Should contain all the necessary info for a stakeholder to judge the sustainability performance of a company

Show progress

- Info should be presented in a manner that enables readers to analyze changes in an org. performance over time.

Use Indicators

- Use performance indicators appropriate for your company size, sector and unique operating environment

Be specific

- It should include specific descriptions, e.g.
- Don't: "We conduct training..."
- Do: "Last year, we trained 10 employees on waste management..."

Who is Responsible for Compiling the COP?

- It's the product of team effort.
- Multi-faceted so speak to the relevant people :
 - Risk/Compliance/Quality Assurance/ Ethics Staff
 - Corporate Affairs/PR
 - Human Resource/Administration
 - PA/Secretary to CEO
 - CSR/Foundation
 - CEO
- Input for the COP should be a continuous process and not when the deadline is a few days away!

The background of the slide features a close-up photograph of several avocados. KAKUZI

Growing Together

KAKUZI CoP Presentation

Kakuzi at a glance

- Human rights are a core component of sustainability and responsible business practices.
- Aligning reporting with human rights ensures transparency, accountability, and ethical governance.
- Strengthening corporate reputation and stakeholder trust through responsible reporting.
- Compliance with UN Global Compact (UNGC) Communication on Progress (COP) guidelines and best practices.

How Kakuzi Determines Material Human Rights Issues

Identification of potentially/ relevant topics: Done by engaging external sources (growers, communities, regulators, national and county government, investors) and internal sources (look at financial and non-financial disclosures, previous materiality assessments, company business model).

Prioritization of topics important to Kakuzi and our stakeholders: a) importance to Kakuzi-consider matters that present the greatest risks and opportunities for Kakuzi's ability to create long-term value and achieve our ambition.

b) Importance to stakeholders- concerns and expectations about our company, our industry, agriculture and food systems that are frequently raised by stakeholders.

Classification of topics as material: Those topics that are of high impact to our business continuity. E.g Respecting and promoting human rights, management & traceability.

How Kakuzi Determines Material Human Rights Issues

Key considerations:

- Risk severity: Impact on individuals and communities.
- Stakeholder concerns: Feedback from employees, communities, and investors channeled through our OGM
- Industry-specific issues: Agricultural sector risks, labor rights, and land use.
- Regular assessment to align with evolving human rights standards. (corrective actions received after social and statutory audits)

Overview of Kakuzi's Human Rights Policy

- Policy aligned with national & international human rights standards (e.g., UN Guiding Principles, ILO, Global Compact Principles on human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption; CoK; NAP on BHR)
- The Policy applies to all employees and also extends to those we conduct business with i.e suppliers, contractors, service providers etc.
- The HR Policy is complemented by the following policies and frameworks: Standard Operating Procedures on Human Rights Defenders; Environmental Policy; Health and Safety Policy; Anti-Sexual Harassment Policy; Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy; Whistle Blowing Policy and Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Frameworks.
- Periodic policy review for continuous improvement.

Engaging Stakeholders & Preventing Human Rights Violations

- Multi-stakeholder engagement: workers, local communities, NGOs, and regulators
- Feedback mechanisms for continuous dialogue;
- Supplier / contractor checks before engaging in business.
- Employee satisfaction survey.

Key prevention actions:

- Training: Employees, communities and suppliers on human rights expectations.
- Audits: Regular assessments to identify and mitigate risks.
- Internal audits: done by our Internal Audit Division and conducts financial and social audits and recommends areas of improvement.
- External audits: done by both national regulators and international
- Supply chain oversight: Due diligence for responsible sourcing.

Ensuring Continuous Improvement & Accountability

Transparent stakeholder reporting on environmental progress

Measuring Progress and Remedy

Progress;
Annual Environmental Audits

Setting of environmental KPI's and timebound environmental targets

Supplier Compliance checks

Remedy:
Implementation of EMPS and Corrective action plans

Stakeholder feedback mechanism- annual surveys

Policy review and updates

Climate change	Monitor and measure Scope 1, 2 and 3 Greenhouse Gas emissions.
Air pollution	Maintenance of our roasters to ensure minimal pollution. Conduct stack emission analysis
Waste (e.g., chemical spills, solid waste, hazardous, plastic, etc.)	Reduce Packaging material waste from 8% to 5%
Energy & resource use	Replace non-LED lights with LED lights. Install an energy use monitoring system

Climate Action and Resource Use

Goal: Working towards a carbon negative supply chain

GHG Emission Calculations;

Base year for calculating emissions: 2021

Organizational Boundary- Control Approach, Operational Control

Operational Boundary: Scope 1 and 2 emissions

Scope 3 first calculated for 2023 for 5 out of the 15 categories

Metric	2021	2022	Change
GHG Emissions (tCO ₂ e)	265.130	283.492	+6.9%
Roasted Coffee Production (kg)	1,083,181	1,286,145	+18.7%
Carbon Footprint per kg (tCO ₂ e/kg)	0.00025	0.00022	-12%

Conclusion

Challenges;

- Ensuring supplier compliance across global operations
- Balancing economic growth and environmental responsibility – managing costs of sustainable initiatives
- Limited knowledge on climate action standards and complexities of implementation

What's next for ACR;

- Achieve ISO 14001 certification by 2025

DATA VISUALIZATION TOOL

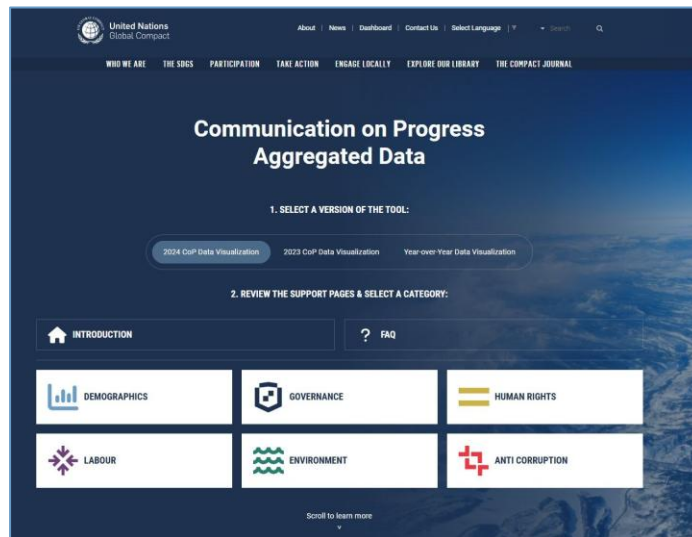

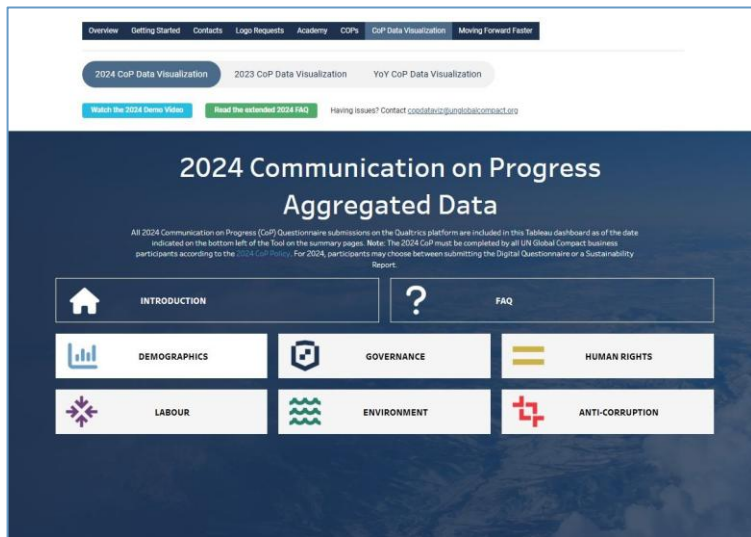

How to access the CoP Data Visualization Tools:

From participant dashboard:

Or

From CoP webpage:

Includes benchmarking feature for participants who filled out CoP questionnaire

Available to general public, does not provide access to participant-only benchmarking features

CoP Data Viz Tools | Available on participant dashboard & CoP webpage to visualize questionnaire data

2024 Tool includes a benchmarking functionality for participants to compare responses to the aggregate (2023 Tool also available)

- How were the percentages and volumes calculated for the summary pages?
- What does the “Delta” refer to and how is it calculated?
- Why do sample sizes differ across questions?
- What classifies as an SME?

From CoP webpage:

To make analysis more manageable, we recommend reviewing the CoP questionnaire so you can identify questions for which you want to a deeper look

Additional feature: Use the individual questions page to look at numerical response data for select questions

The individual questions page also allows you to see numerical response data by toggling the "Show Numerical" filter. G2 does not have any numerical response components, so you will see the following message.

If a question does have a numerical response component, such as G11, the individual questions page will show data like this when "Show Numerical" is toggled on.

Step 5: Use the cohort comparison page to compare responses for different groups

On the cohort comparison page, you can compare responses of two cohorts for the same question side by side.

Step 6: To compare your organization's responses to those of other cohorts of participants, log into your participant dashboard

Participants who answered the CoP Digital Questionnaire will be able to benchmark their 2024 CoP responses against peer cohorts' responses via the 2024 Data Viz Tool on their participant dashboard

Frequently Asked Questions

Will the 2025 CoP Questionnaire be different from the 2024 version?

- The 2025 CoP Questionnaire incorporates a series of updates. These updates are based on evolving reporting requirements, past data analysis, and extensive stakeholder engagement. More information will be provided in the next few weeks.

When will the supporting documents for the 2025 CoP reporting be released?

- Supporting documents for the 2025 CoP reporting will be made available over the coming months, before 1 April 2025. Please stay tuned for updates, as these documents will be posted on the UN Global Compact CoP webpage and the UN Global Compact Academy as soon as they are finalized.

What data should I use to report?

- The UN Global Compact recommends that the CoP is completed with information from the company's most recent, closed data period. As such, the 2025 CoP should reflect 2024 data, where possible.

What should be included in the sustainability report?

- The sustainability report should provide a comprehensive overview of a company's activities and sustainability efforts, reflecting improvements, challenges, and progress during the reporting period. While explicit ties are not mandatory, it should cover topics related to the Ten Principles of the UN Global Compact and the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).
